She attended St. Joseph Catholic School, Convent of Mercy, Murphy High School ('35) and received a Bachelor of Science degree from Spring Hill College. She completed graduated courses towards a Master's in Business Administration, as well as courses in Contract Law and Negotiation.

Ms. Laurendine was an employee of the U.S. Government for approximately 40 years, most of which was in Contract Administration and Negotiation for the Air Force, Army, and Navy. She has worked in Washington D.C., Atlanta, Ga., San Antonio, Texas, Huntsville, Ala., Pascagoula, Miss., and Brookley Air Force Base, Mobile, Ala.

In addition, Ms. Laurendine served as the Federal Women's Coordinator for the Naval Command and served on the Admiral's staff. Following her government career, she was a Contract Specialist for Ingalls' Shipbuilding. She received the Outstanding Mobile Career Women's Award. Ms. Laurendine, a seventh generation Laurendine, descended from Pierre Laurendine, one of the earliest settlers of Mobile. Pierre served with the French Colonial Army in Mobile. Pierre's son, J.B. Laurendine, was one of the owner's of the St. Louis Tract, one of the largest land grants in Mobile.

Proud of her families' heritage and with strong feelings about her Mobile community, Ms. Laurendine sought to see Mobile develop into a beautiful and progressive city, worthy of its rich cultural and historical origins. She ran for the Mobile City Council, Mayor of Mobile, and the Alabama State Legislature and was very effective in bringing important issues to the public. Ms. Laurendine was nominated for "Mobilian of the Year", 2002. Ms. Laurendine wrote and spoke against the Boswell Amendment in Mobile and also spoke against it before the Alabama Legislature. This amendment was designed with the intent to deny the privilege of voting to minorities. She was also a member of the Mobile Interracial League that fought to promote fair and better relations.

Ms. Laurendine was an active member of le Salon, a reading and study group in Mobile, and a long-time member, officer and board member of Church Women United of Mobile, an international organization dedicated to prayer, working for peace, human rights, justice, and the empowerment of women. She headed their enabling group which provided grants and seed money for local women to start their own businesses. She also worked with local humane societies, and served on the Mobile Animal Shelter Board. She initiated publication of the First Freedom newspaper, a vehicle for March Against Crime to address and promote desired action in various issues in local concern. She has worked voter registration, with the City of Mobile on Challenge 2000, and Save Our City for a more effective city government.

Over her lifetime, Ms. Laurendine has demonstrated interest in the betterment of Mobile and devoted her time

Coffee Pot invented by A. F. Nelson I regard as the best on the market. It is the most practical and efficient of anything of its kind, reaching the liquid through the ground more thoroughly, extracts the principal caffeine, which is so irritating and stimulating to the nervous system. We use the tea and distiller and are very much pleased with it.

DIED.

On Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1896, at 4:30 p. m., Mr. JOHN H. LAURENDINE, a prominent and highly esteemed citizen of Scranton.

Deceased was born in Mobile, Ala., in 1842, and has resided in Jackson county for many years. An aged father and mother survive him, also three sisters and three brothers, together with wife and seven children. Of the latter, all are grown, saving one. Mr. LAURENDINE came of a family highly connected, and identified with the business and social community. He was related by ties of kindred and marriage with many of our oldest families, and his taking off will be deeply lamented.

His funeral took place Wednesday afternoon, the interment being at the Pascagoula Catholic cemetery, and a large concourse of sorrowing relatives and friends attending the last sad rites.

At Pascagoula, Miss., on Tuesday, Oct. 27, 1896, at 10:40 p. m., Mr. CHAS. W. McLANATHAN, aged 45 years.

Deceased leaves a wife and three daughters to mourn his demise. He had been a patient sufferer for many years from rheumatism. His funeral was largely attended, the remains being interred in the Protestant cemetery at 4:30 p. m. Wednesday.

DEATH OF JOHN A. COCHRAN.

JOHN A. COCHRAN died at his home in Greene county, Miss., Sept. 9, 1896. He was born on the 15th day of December, 1828, near where he died. He married Miss Ruth Champlin January 18, 1854, who survives him, with six children and twenty-four grandchildren.

Farming was his occupation. Mr. Cochran united with the Methodist Episcopal church, South, at Old Salem camp-ground, about fifty years ago, and was a zealous, energetic, working member of that church until the time of his death; was superintendent of his Sunday-school for forty years, and faithfully and conscientiously discharged his duties for the same. He was a steward in his church for many years, and never was missing from his post without some providential excuse: and when he laid down his earthly chance for a bargain.

—The New Orleans and Mobile gun clubs will have a shooting match at Mississippi City next Wednesday, the 7th. Quite a large crowd is expected to be in attendance.

—We received a stalk of corn this week grown in the garden of Mr. M. A. Dees, which had a ear of corn on it where the tassel naturally should grow. In ~~other~~ words the ear took the place of the tassel.

—When you want to buy ice, which is almost a necessity these hot days, call on our friend John O'Donohoe, at the telegraph office. He sells it by the sack and also by retail. His retail price is two cents a pound.

—No one has been appointed justice of the peace at this place to fill the vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Dr. Chidsey, and from present indications we do not believe any one can be found who will except the office.

—Miss Alice Easterling, a graduate of Meridian Female seminary, and now one of the teachers in that school, is here at her home among her relatives and friends for a few weeks' recreation and rest.

—Our people are enthusiastic over the nomination of Hancock and English. When the news reached us on Thursday afternoon of last week, B. J. Lane brought his cannon to the front and fired a salute in honor of the nomination. All democrats seem jubilant, while the republicans seem correspondingly depressed.

Ho! for Round island to-morrow, says the "darkey."

Rev. J. M. Weems, unless providentially hindered, will fill his appointment as usual on Sunday morning and night.

Miss Ella Hale, of Eutaw, Ala., formerly of this place, is now here on a visit to her old friends, of whom she has a large circle.

Ice cream is vended almost daily on our streets, from a wheelbarrow; however, it tastes just as good, and is just as cold as if from a saloon.

Mrs. Kate Taylor, nee Miss Griffin, and husband have been spending a few days with their relatives and friends, this week, at Moss Point.

McClure, the photograph artist, says he won't be here many more days. Those wishing photographs should govern themselves accordingly.

Mr. Graham is building a residence near the Baptist church, next to his blacksmith shop. It speaks well for Moss Point to see new residences going up.

Mr. J. Laurendine has purchased the Sleuter property, where Mr. Goleman used to live, and is having the blacksmith shop fitted up for a store, where he will move his stock of goods when completed.

We call attention to the advertisement of that prince of shoemakers, J. H. Turner, of Moss Point. He has recently employed first-class help, and is prepared to execute all orders for boots and shoes with neatness and dispatch, and at the lowest living cash prices. If you don't believe it try him and be convinced.

DIED.

CHAMPLIN—At Biloxi, Miss., June 20, 1880, at 11:30 o'clock p.m., Evelyn Castaneda, infant daughter of Dr. A. P. Champlin and Augusta B. Jennett, aged 4 months and 20 days.

000." The idea of a poor editor asking for that amount of money, is supremely ridiculous!

The Louisville Courier-Journal makes the following double barreled prediction, and wants everybody to make a note on it. I. If New York furnish the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency—and the indications are that it will—he will be Grover Cleveland. II. If Grover Cleveland be not the next Democratic candidate for the Presidency, he will be a Western man. To which we add: III. If a Western man be the next candidate for the Presidency he will in all probability be beaten.

JUST on the eve of putting our paper to press this (Thursday) evening we learn that our young and handsome friend, Howard P. Beeman, senior editor of the Coast Beacon, and Miss Lizzie Middleton of Mississippi City, were married at her mother's residence on Wednesday evening last by Rev. Mr. Mayer of Pass Christian. This step in life our young friends have taken, we hope they will never regret.

The happy couple, after partaking of a sumptuous repast, left on the south bound train for New Orleans for a short bridal trip, then to return to Pass Christian, their future home. We tender our congratulations and wish the newly wedded pair a blissful married life.

It is with pleasure that we call attention to the new advertisement of Mr. E. D. Laurendine, located on Pascagoula street. Mr. Laurendine is successor to Mr. J. W. Laurendine, member of the late firm of Girard & Laurendine. He has on hand a large and select stock of goods, and being an enterprising and pushing young man, is doing a popular business. We wish him much success, and commend him to the favor of our citizens.

SEPARATE SCHOOL DISTRICTS.—State Superintendent Preston writes as follows to the Brookhaven Leader:

Towns becoming separate school districts must maintain seven months schools. In such cases the town constitutes but one district, the schools for the races being taught apart, but considered as one school. One set of trustees act for all, and are elected by the Mayor and Aldermen, who in conjunction with the trustees fix salaries, time of running the schools, etc. The schools are under the same general management, the principal directing the operations of both.

MR. JOSEPH LAURENDINE, Sr., a patriarch of Bayou La Batre left last night to visit the St. Louis Exposition. It is the first time Mr. Laurendine has been outside the State of Alabama for seventy-two years. His good wife was apprehensive of his safety while on such a long tour, and pasted a placard on his back which read: "If lost, please return to Bayou La Batre." This was not discovered by the wearer until he reached town. He took it as a good joke.—Mobile Register.

It is most important in buying musical instruments to deal with a known reliable dealer near at home, and to this end we recommend to our readers the firm of Zadek & Norton, of Mobile, whose advertisement will be found in our advertisement and see what these gentlemen deal in.
